SEATING COMFORT FOR THOSE WITH DISCERNING TASTE

Modern elegance – convincing and linear

Good taste and an awareness of top quality go together. This is also true for the working environment. The CHARTA collection with conference chairs, lounge chairs and executive task chairs presents these values in a harmonious and extremely stylish form. Leading means thinking ahead, and making visions reality. Nowadays being in management also means spending the greater part of your working hours in the office and at your computer. It is nice if you can do so in a comfortable position. The CHARTA executive task chair with high backrest sports an individual adjustment mechanism. The spring suspension of the conference chair seats produces a “cantilever feeling”, while the swing suspension of the backrest delivers comfort and seating pleasure.
